

Post-DPhil Career positions

The following positions are ones that require or value a doctoral degree.

Research professional

There is a responsibility to conduct research as part of these positions.

- Research-professional
- Senior research scientist for a government lab
- Research assistant in a pharmaceutical company
- Water quality scientist for a utilities company
- Archaeologist for a NGO
- Environmental policy analyst for an NGO
- Social science researcher in research hospital

Professional

In these positions, there is no responsibility to carry out research, though some may be done.

- R&D manager for a chemicals company
- Senior specialist software engineer
- Quantitative analyst for an investment bank
- Risk and data management team leader for an oil and gas consultancy
- Science and technology policy specialist for government
- Research council officer
- Medical writer for a communications company
- Associate editor for a publishing company

Academic-related

In these positions within the academy, there is no responsibility to carry out research, though some may be done.

- Educational/academic developer
- Careers counsellor
- Research officer (support for those applying for grants)
- Researcher development officer (support for post-PhD researchers)
- Institute/Faculty research facilitator (develop unit's long-term research potential)
- Scientific portfolio manager in research institute (includes dissemination strategies)
- Student affairs officer